Winner of The Vicksburg Entrepreneur Bootcamp Business Plan Competition

Vicksburg, Mississippi – (May 25th)

Three participants in the Spring graduating class of the Vicksburg Entrepreneur Bootcamp presented in the second Business Plan Competition on the night of May 25th at the Hinds Community College Campus. For several weeks, the participants have been diligently working on finalizing their business plans to pitch to a five-judge panel. The participants discussed their business sector trends, feasibility, marketability, and financial growth to the judges in order to have a chance to win a “Seed Grant” of $1,000 to help them with the cost of opening or improving their small business.

We are happy to announce that Gellisa Fevrier with All Curly Girls Salon is the winner of the Spring Business Plan Competition. All Curly Girls Salon provides services for all textures, density & ethnicities of hair. The salon also sells All Curly Girls Love Butter which is an all-natural moisturizing butter that can be paired with your favorite styling product. All Curly Girls Salon is located at 3402 Wisconsin Avenue Suite 5 in Vicksburg. Please visit www.allcurlygirls.com for more information.

The Vicksburg Entrepreneur Bootcamp Business Plan Competition is sponsored by the Vicksburg Chamber of Commerce, the City of Vicksburg, Hinds Community College, BancorpSouth, Mutual Credit Union, Home Bank, River Hills Bank, Regions, Guaranty Bank, and Trustmark.
